

simply. accessible.

Anodizing is the process of electrochemically accelerating and controlling the oxidation of an aluminum substrate, creating an extremely hard, durable, and aesthetically pleasing coating on the aluminum.

Care & Cleaning an anodized finish should be cleaned using mild soap solutions to retain its original appearance. The cleaning solution should be applied with a soft cloth, sponge or brush. Avoid the use of acidic or alkaline cleaners.

Wikk Clear ANO-215R1 AE

Wikk Extra Dark Bronze ANO-304 AE

